

Supplier Integration Lead

ROLE OVERVIEW:

Supplier Integration Lead (Supply Chain Management) is responsible for implementation and on-going management of standardized central service level agreements across multiple strategic partners, in line with the LKQ European functional roadmap and strategy.

Working collaboratively with strategic partners and internal stakeholders to drive inbound excellence across all LKQ European regions and achieve expected delivery performance levels.

Leading Supply Chain Management inbound performance reviews with assigned suppliers, tracking improvement actions, reporting progress to key internal stakeholders, and providing leadership as a point of escalation for supply issues. Active participation in supplier and functional meetings both remotely and in person, as required.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Managing Supply Chain Supplier Service Level Agreements – negotiation, implementation, and long-term adherence
- Operationalize functional strategy with European supply partners
- Supplier performance KPIs
- Managing and providing updates relating to Supply Chain performance of European supply partners to key internal stakeholders
- Escalation point for European supply partner risks impacting/potential that will effect service level performance

KEY STAKEHOLDERS:

- Director of Supplier Integration
- Regional COO's
- European and Regional Demand and Supply Planning Directors/Managers
- European Procurement
- European Freight Management
- Key European Suppliers

KEY AND DESIRED SKILLS:

- University degree or 10 years+ experience in Logistics & Supply Chain.
- Leadership / people management experience.
- Supplier performance management and service level agreement negotiation experience.
- International stakeholder management experience in a matrix organisation.
- Working proficiency in English.
- Energetic, self-motivated, proactive, willing to take on responsibility.
- Proficient IT user (Microsoft Office, ERP & BI systems).
- Willingness to travel within Europe up to 10% of work time.

KEY DETAILS:

Permanent/Interim: Permanent

Location: Germany

Reporting to: Director of Supplier Integration, LKQ Europe

Apply to: recruiting@lkqeurope.com